RHYME REVIEW A noun's the name of anything,      As school, or garden, or hoop, or swing.  Adjectives tell the kind of noun,      As great, small, pretty, white, or brown.      Instead of nouns, the pronouns stand,      Her head, his face, your arm, my hand.  Verbs tell of something to be done,      To read, count, sing, laugh, jump, or run.      How things are done, the adverbs tell,      As slowly, quickly, ill or well.  Conjunctions join words together,      As men and women, wind or weather.      The preposition stands before,      A noun, as in, or through a door.      The interjection shows surprise,      As oh! how pretty - ah! how wise.      The whole are called the parts of speech,      Which reading, writing, speaking, teach.      -Alfred J Lawrence	Parts of Speech  MINI BOOK Everything you need to know about the parts of speech in one little book!	PARTS OF SPEECH The eight parts of speech help to explain when a word is best used. # Parts of Speech

MINI BOOK

Everything you need to know about the parts of speech
in one little book!

PARTS OF SPEECH

The eight parts of speech help to explain when a word is best used. You already use the eight parts of speech in your everyday language, whether you realize it or not!

1. Verb
2. Noun
3. Pronoun
4. Adjective
5. Adverb
6. Proposition
7. Conjunction
8. Interjection

Part of Speech #1

✓ Verb: expresses an action or state of being.

→ Action: talk, walk, run

→ State: is, has, been, am

Part of Speech #2

✓ Noun: identifies a person, place or thing, or idea.

→ Person: Mr. Smith

Adverbs can appear in the form of single words, phrases, or clauses.

Part of Speech #6

✓ Preposition: in simplest terms, is a word that describes the position of an object.
→ on, under, beside, in

Note: never end a sentence with a preposition.

Part of Speech #7

✓ Conjunction: words that join words, phrases, or clauses.
→ and, or, but, nor, for, yet, and therefore

Part of Speech #8

Interjection: expresses a strong feeling or emotion.

→ Wow!

→ Hey!

→ Ouch!

Note: interjections often stand alone in a sentence and they are usually followed by an exclamation mark.

Understanding the eight parts of speech means you are able to use the right word in the right place!

Rhyme Review

Every name is called a noun,
There's a long street in that town;
In place of noun the pronoun rests,
Where he and she can build their nest;
The adjective describes a thing,
As magic wand and shiny ring;
The verb means action, get it done, to read, to write, to jump, or run;
Adverbs tell how things are done,
like quick, too slow, bad or fun;
The preposition shows a relation,
As in the cart, or at the station;
Conjunctions join words together,
like and, or, for, but, forever ;
The interjection cries out, 'Wow!'
After this poem I should take a bow.
