EMELYA

Read this text and correct the mistakes

Emelya wasn't a lazy boy. He loved working. One day he went fishing and caught a big magic duck in the river. He wanted to make some soup or pasta from the duck, but it started to sing. Emelya liked the song and let the duck go. The duck was very happy and flew away. Emelya and the duck became friends. When the duck had problems, it called Emelya, and he came to help. He cut some wood, fought with the king's soldiers and even built a big castle for the duck and its boyfriend.
