KOLOBOK

One day an old man asked his wife to make a pizza. But when she opened the oven, she saw that the pizza was alive! It walked, talked and even tried to watch TV. The man and his wife were very scared. The pizza broke their door and went into the forest. It met a rabbit, a wolf and a bear there. It was very hungry and wanted to eat the animals, but they ran away. Fortunately, the pizza met a fox. The fox was very clever. She asked the pizza to sit on her motorbike and took it to the police station.
