G: He must be in the library. He usually goes there after lunch.
B: He seems very quiet.
G: Yes, he does. He is kind but he doesn't talk much.

2.
B: How should we divide the work for our history project?
G: Why don't I make the poster, and you do the presentation?
B: OK, but I think it would be better if we could do the presentation together.
G: I'm sorry, but I am not good at speaking in front of others. I will probably get nervous and ruin the presentation.
B: OK, I understand.

Part 5

Listen and fill in the blanks.

1.
B: I had a fight with Oliver at school today. He becomes very aggressive when he plays soccer. He and I bumped into each other while we were running, and then he got really mad and pushed me onto the ground. That's not the kind of sportsmanship we learned from our coach. I wish he could think before he acts.
2.
G: Everybody has a different personality. Some people might be outgoing but others might be introverted. Some might be talkative and loud, but others might prefer to work individually. What will you do if you meet someone with the opposite personality from yours? Will you ignore the person, or tell the person to change his or her personality? No matter what personality other people have, we should all accept them and be nice to them.
