How to Use Daily Language Review

This book is divided into 36 weekly sections.
Each weekly unit provides daily assessment activities.

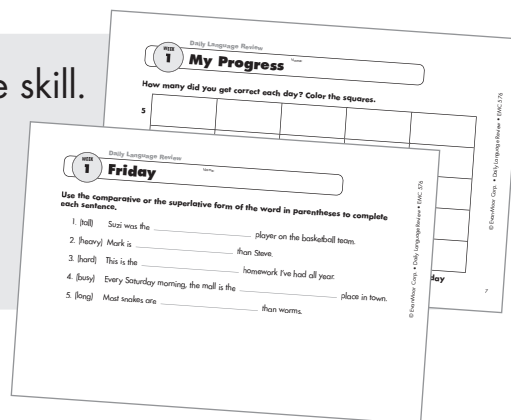

Monday through Thursday

- Students edit sentences and make corrections to punctuation, capitalization, and grammar.
- Students complete items that practice a variety of language and reading skills.

Friday

- Students focus on practicing a single skill.
- Students complete a daily progress record that tracks their work for the week.

Hints and Suggestions

Customize the daily review lessons to meet the needs of your class.

- Look ahead each week at the skills being practiced. If you encounter a new skill, complete the item as a class.
- Correct students' work together to model the correct responses.
- As skills are repeated throughout the year, monitor students' mastery.

Proofread these paragraphs. Find the 10 errors, cross them out, and write the words correctly above them.

On a sunny summer day, many neighbors visit our backyard. Most yards in the neighborhood are small, but our is large. My friends and me have room for running and shady spots for resting. Last night, my dad and mom cooked hot dogs on the grill in the backyard. Some parents don't cook outside, but my like to cook for a crowd in our backyard.

Almost all of the neighbors came over. Ms. Lee brought potato salad. I like potato salad, and her's is the best I've ever tasted. Mr. Carson brought lemonade and soda. Him and Ms. Carson brought lawn chairs, too. There lawn chairs provided all of us places to sit while we waited for a freshly grilled hot dog.

"Whom brought the marshmallows?" I asked after dinner. My older sister Carol brought out a bag of marshmallows for toasting. Her and her friends never forget the marshmallows. Them volunteered to toast a marshmallow for everyone.

As the sun set, the mosquitoes came out. It was time to put on bug spray. The adults talked and laughed while the kids kicked a soccer ball. When it was too dark to see, the other kids and me told stories. What a perfect summer day!

How We Began

In 1979, Joy Evans and Jo Ellen Moore were team-teaching first grade in a Title I school. They decided to put ideas that worked for their students into a book. They joined with Bill Evans (Joy's brother) to start Evan-Moor Educational Publishers with one title.

Who We Became

Evan-Moor now offers over 450 titles, many of which have won awards for quality, creativity, and innovation. Our materials are used in classrooms around the world.

Our Mission

Now, as then, we are dedicated to helping children learn. We think it is the world's most important job, and we strive to assist teachers and parents in this essential endeavor.

Evan-Moor products are available at fine teacher supply stores and bookstores everywhere and at www.evan-moor.com.
