

The children are at the zoo with their parents. The zookeeper is telling them about the animals. Read what they say.

Mr Ho: Hello, children. I am Mr Ho. I look after the animals at the zoo.

Bobby: Look! The monkeys are climbing the tree! How many monkeys are there at the zoo?

Mr Ho: Sixteen.

Dad: Are there any turtles?

Mr Ho: Oh, yes. There are twenty turtles. There are eighteen penguins too. The turtles and the penguins are swimming over there.

Alan: What is a penguin?

Mr Ho: It is a black and white bird. It can swim but it can't fly.

Bobby: I can see some brown and green snakes on the grass. Oh, there is a black and white animal in that tree!

Mum: That is a panda.

Bobby: It is cute!
