

Tom is reading a story. Read the story.

Little May and her mother are looking at the monkeys in the zoo. The monkeys are swinging in the trees.

'Mum, let's give some bananas to the monkeys,' says May. Mum says, 'Look at that sign. It says: Don't feed the monkeys. You mustn't feed them.'

'OK, Mum. But that man isn't following the sign,' May says. 'He is giving the monkeys some bananas and peanuts.'

'May, he's the zoo keeper!' says Mum.

'Oh, I see,' May says. 'I want to be a monkey.'

'Why do you say that?' asks Mum.

'Monkeys are happy. They have no homework,' May says. 'They can climb trees. They can make a noise. They can throw litter. They don't have to follow any rules, but I do!'
