

 NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS

LOOK&LEARN

Birds

Splashy, splash, splash.

The red bird takes a bath.

Feathers keep the bird warm.
Touch the bird's feathers.

The tall feathers on top of the bird's head are called a crest.

Chirpy, chirp, chirp.
The blue bird sings a sweet song.

Birds chirp to talk to each other.

Say hello to the blue birds.

This bird's song sounds like sweet, sweet.
Too, too.

Hoppy, hop, hop.

The yellow bird peeks into the leaves.

Birds hold on to branches with their feet.

Count the yellow bird's feet. One. Two.

This bird
hops from branch
to branch looking for insects to eat.

Yummy, yum, yum.
The green bird finds a tasty treat.

The father bird feeds his hungry chicks.
Open your mouth wide like a baby bird.

When a baby
bird grows up,
it will find its own food.

Flappy, flap, flap.

The colorful birds have beautiful wings.

The bird flies high into the sky.

Clap your hands for the flying bird.

A bird
flaps its wings
to fly.

Can you find birds by color?

red

blue

yellow

green

