

 NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS

LOOK & LEARN

Peek-a-boo

RACCOON

A raccoon has a striped tail.

Peek-a-boo!
Baby raccoons hide in a tree.

Touch the nose of each raccoon.
Touch your nose.

A baby raccoon gets milk from its mommy.

MOUSE

A mouse has a little pink nose.

Peek-a-boo!

The mouse pops out of its nest.

The mouse stands on its feet.

Find your feet. Wiggle your toes.

A mouse eats seeds, plants, and bugs.

PENGUINS

A baby penguin has soft, fluffy feathers.

Peek-a-boo!

The daddy penguin covers the baby with warm feathers. Tickle the daddy penguin's tummy.

The baby penguin stands on top of its daddy's feet.

ALLIGATOR

A baby alligator has a long body.

Peek-a-boo!
The baby alligator sits on its mommy's head.

Point to the baby alligator.
Point to the mommy alligator.

A baby
alligator hatches
from an egg.

FOX

A fox has big ears.

Peek-a-boo!
Baby foxes peek out of their home.

Soon they will come outside to play.
Count the baby foxes. One. Two.

A fox's fur keeps it warm.

Peek-a-boo!
Can you find us?

Raccoon

Penguins

Alligator

Mouse

Fox

