

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC KIDS

LOOK & LEARN

Same and Different

Which one is different?

How is it different?
How is it the same?

Time to put the crayon away!
Where does it belong?

The world's largest crayon weighs almost as much as a giraffe!

GUESS WHAT?

Which penguin is different?

How is it different?
How is it the same?

Penguin play time!
Which group of penguins would this penguin play with?

GUESS WHAT?

Penguins are great swimmers, but they cannot fly.

Which leaf is different?

How is it different?
How is it the same?

Which tree
did this leaf fall from?

GUESS WHAT?

Maple trees have sap, which can be made into maple syrup.

Which fish is different?

How is it different?
How is it the same?

Let's go swimming!
Which group should this fish follow?

GUESS WHAT?

Fish have been on Earth since before the dinosaurs.

Which pair of socks is different?

How is it different?
How is it the same?

Can you help
sort the laundry?
Put this sock
where it belongs.

GUESS WHAT?

Socks
were invented by the ancient Egyptians.

Let's see what you've learned!

Look at each picture.
Can you spot five things that are different?

