Musical Instruments

Narrator: Mummy Pig and Daddy Pig have been tidying the house.

Daddy: Mummy Pig and I found this old box in the attic!

Pepa: Ooo!

Daddy: Can anyone guess what's inside?

Peppa: Hmmm, nope!

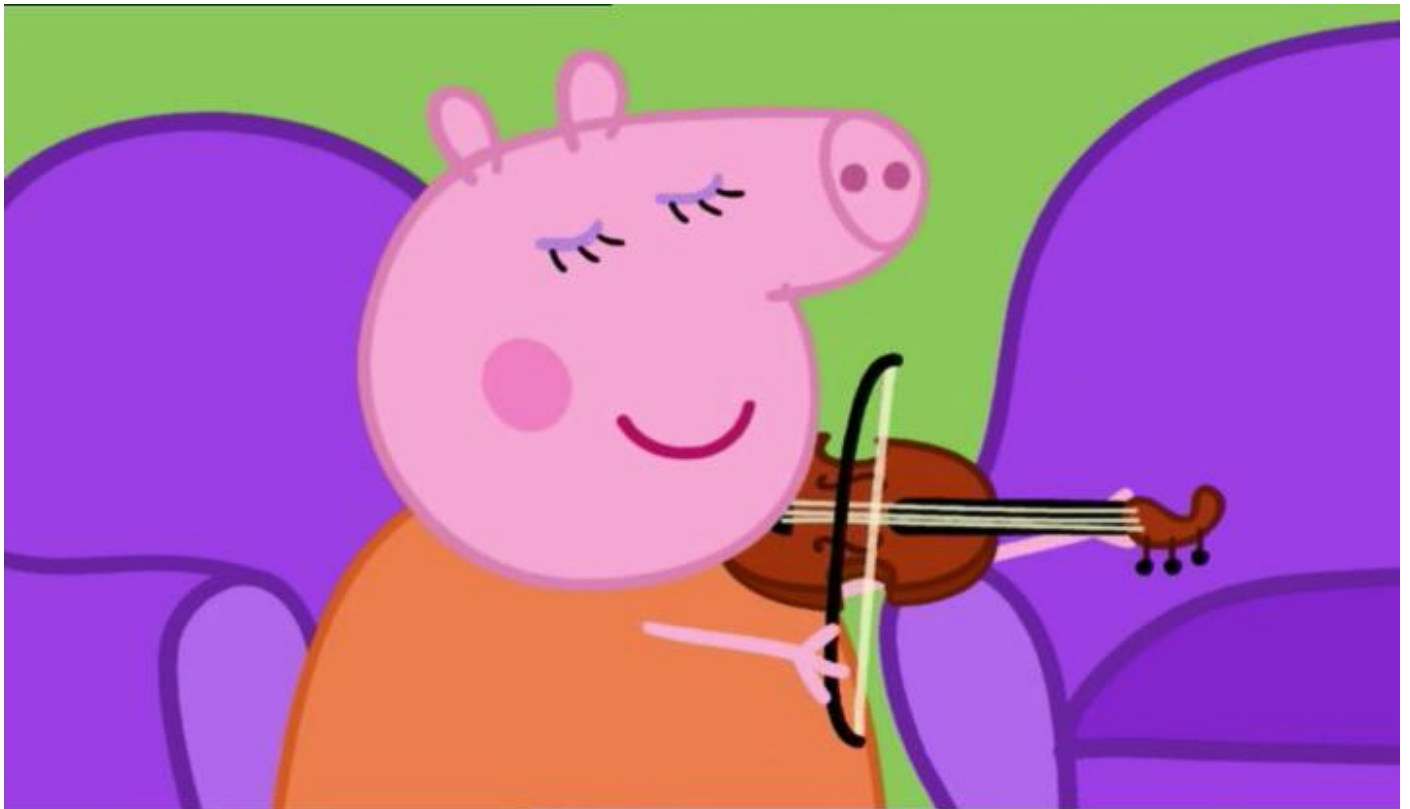

Mummy: It's full of musical instruments!

Peppa&George: Wow!

Daddy: They are a bit old and dusty.

Mummy: This is the violin I used to play when I was little!

Peppa: Mummy? Can you play your violin?

Mummy: I haven't played it for a long time!

Peppa: Please, Mummy! Please play it!

Mummy: I hope I haven't forgotten how...

Daddy: Bravo!

Peppa: Hurray!

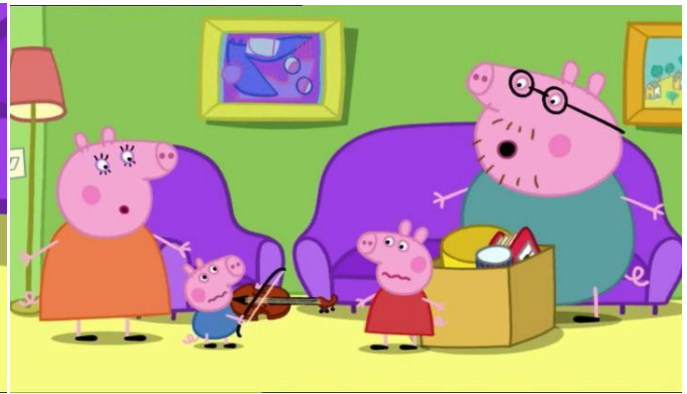

Peppa: Mummy? Can I play the violin?

Mummy: Hold it like this.

Peppa: Yes, Mummy.

Daddy: Oh!

Narrator: Oh, dear. I do not think it is meant to sound like that. George wants to try.

Peppa: Hold it like this, George.

All: Oh!

Narrator: That does not sound quite right, either.

Peppa: The violin is too hard to play!

Daddy: Peppa! Maybe you would do better with this tin drum.

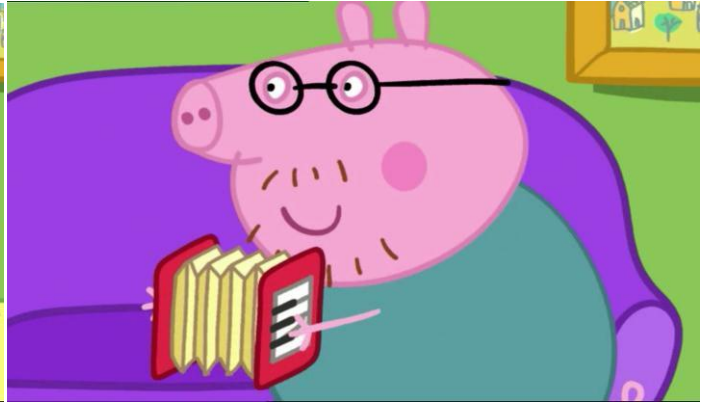

Peppa: Thank you, Daddy.

Narrator: That sounds better! Peppa loves playing the drum.

Mummy: Lovely.

Daddy: Yes, it sounds very nice.

Mummy: This is Daddy Pig's old accordion.

Daddy: I used to play this to Mummy Pig when we first met...

Mummy: Oh... Daddy Pig. I remember this tune.

Narrator: George wants to play the accordion, too!

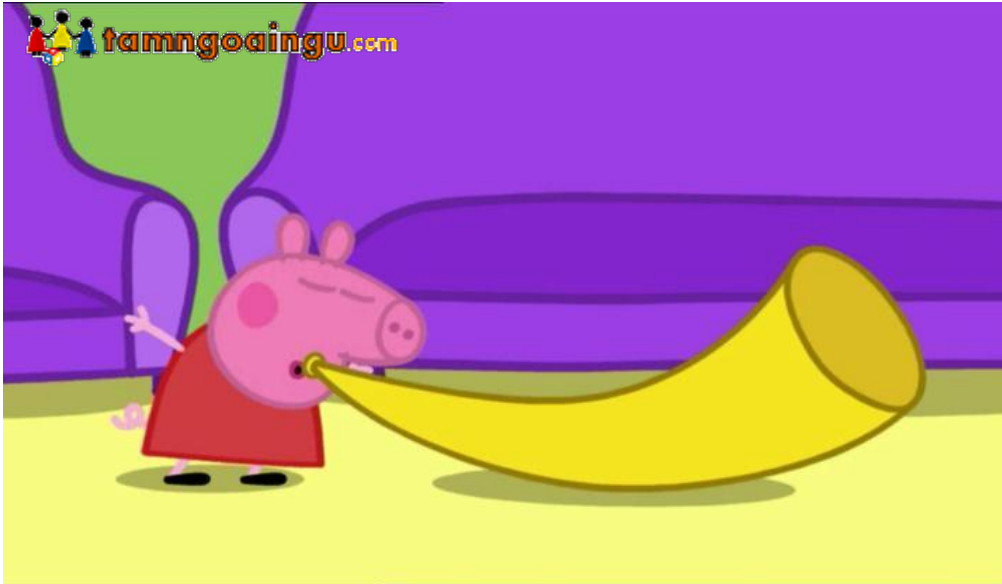

Peppa: Are you sure, George? The accordion is quite difficult.

Peppa: George. The a-cro-dion is almost as difficult to play as my drum.

Daddy: Ok, George.

George: Oh!

Narrator: Maybe George is a bit too little to play the accordion.

Peppa: Daddy? What other instruments are in the box?

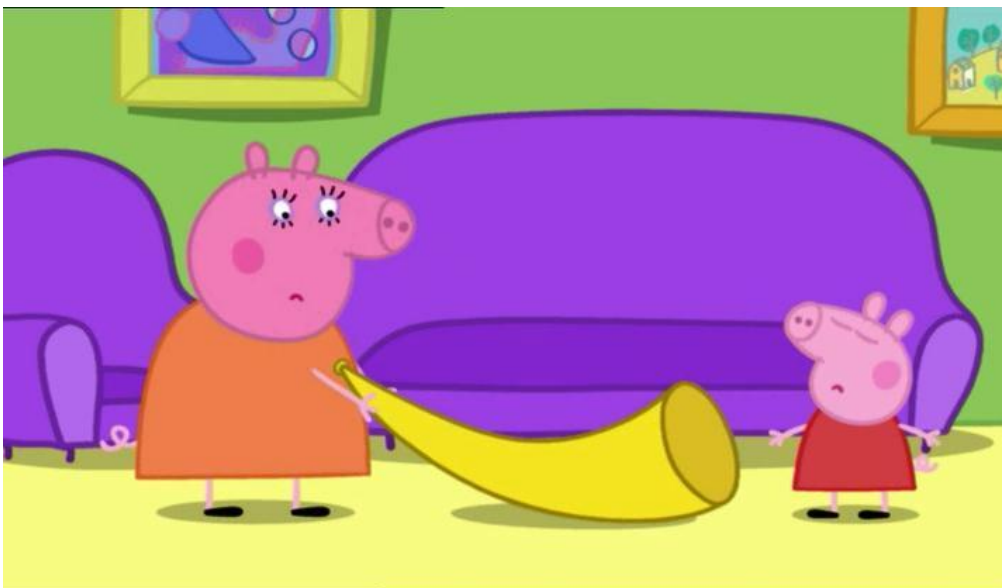

Daddy: Just this horn!

Peppa: Can I try?

Daddy: You have to blow it very hard!

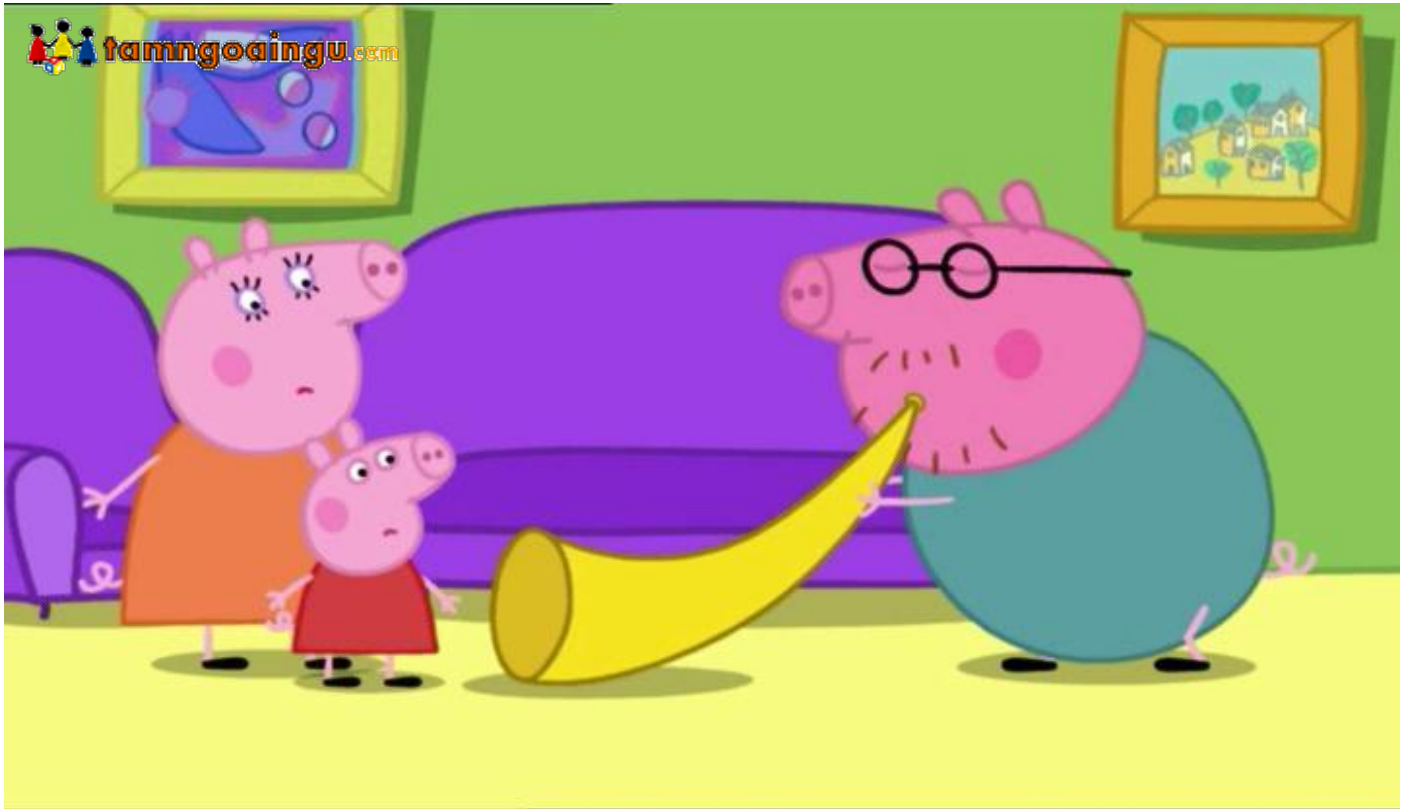

Narrator: That does not sound right.

Peppa: It's impossible!

Mummy: I think I used to be able to play it...

Narrator: That really does not sound right.

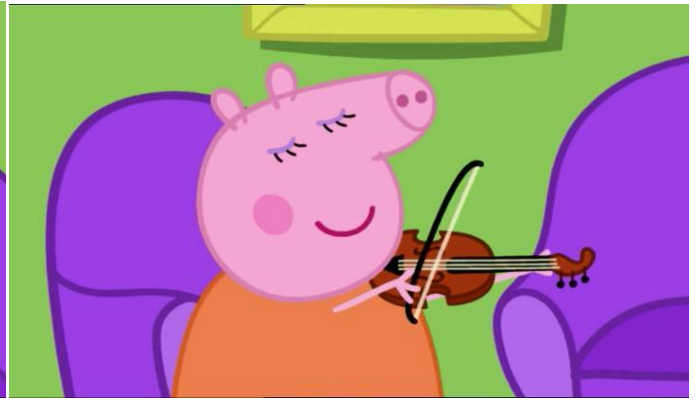

Daddy: Maybe it just needs someone big and strong like me!

Narrator: That does not sound right, either.

Daddy: Peppa's right; it is impossible to play.

Mummy: Never mind, Daddy Pig. Just stick to the accordion. You play it beautifully!

Daddy: Well, I do play it quite nicely, even if I say so myself.

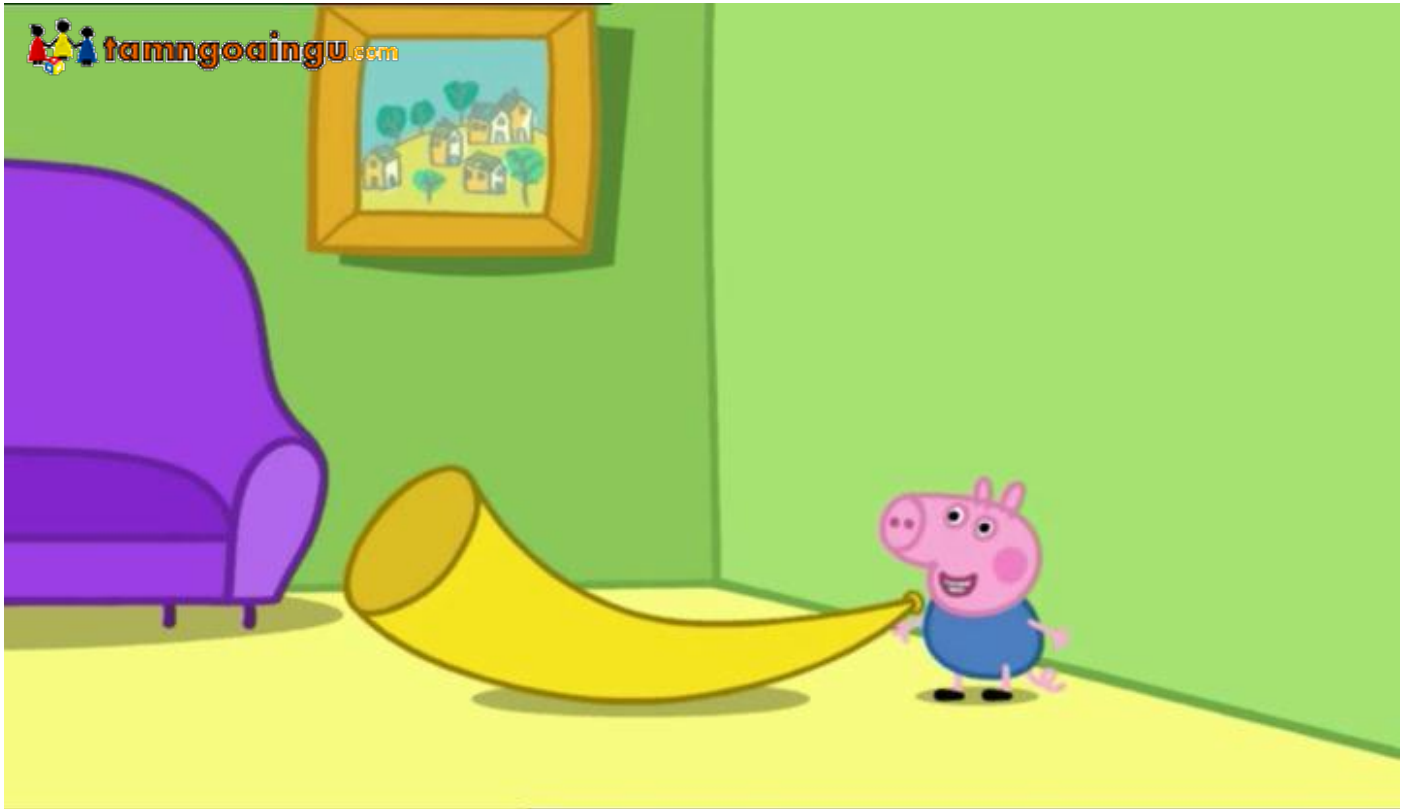

Mummy: And I'll play my violin!

Peppa: And I will play my drum!

Narrator: Mummy Pig plays the violin. Daddy Pig plays the accordion. Peppa plays the drum. But what instrument will George play?

Narrator: George is blowing the horn!

Peppa: Mummy couldn't play the horn and Daddy couldn't play it. And even I couldn't play it!

But George can play it.
