

Treasure Hunt

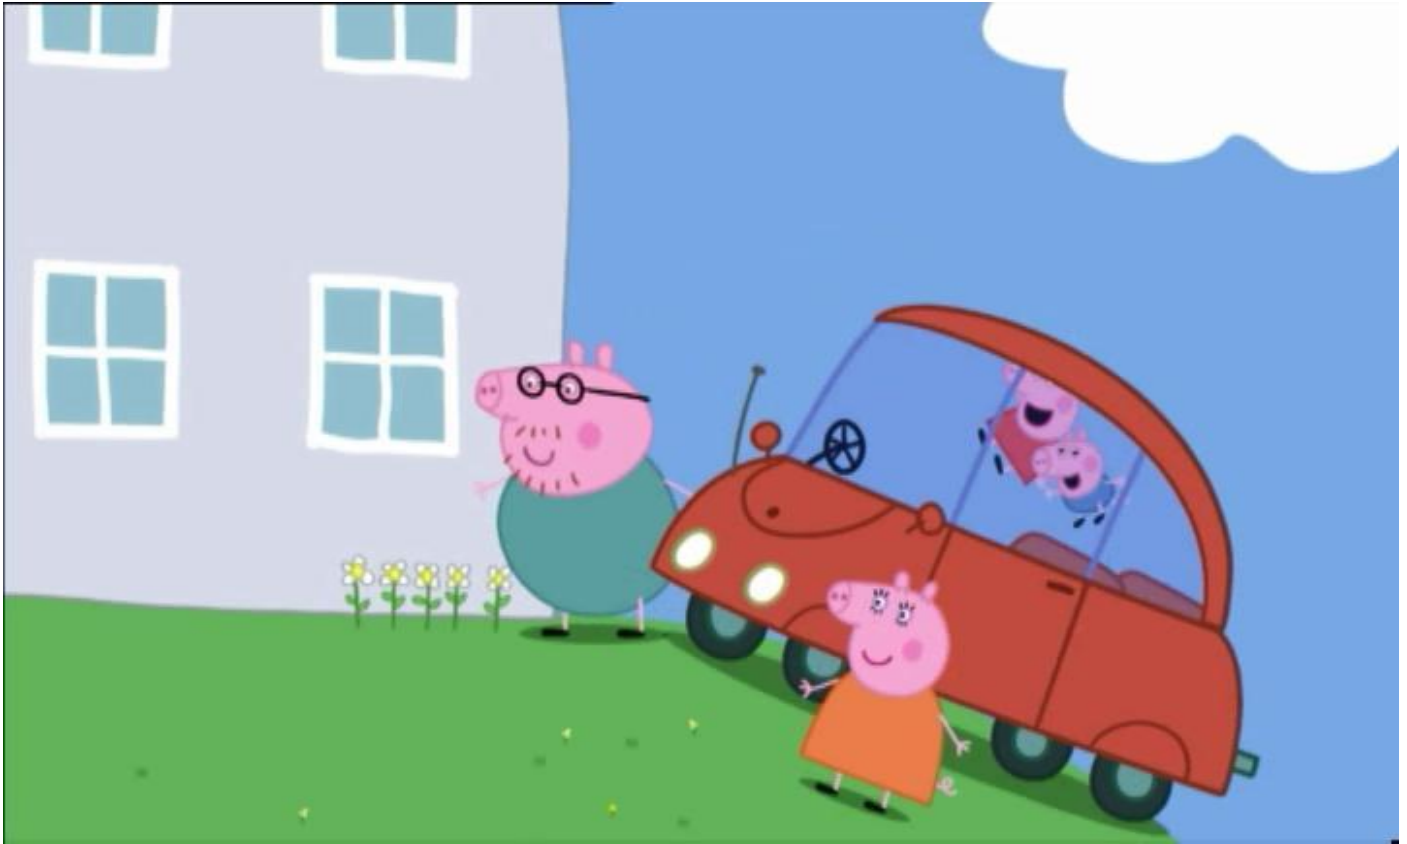

Narrator: Granny Pig and Grandpa Pig are making a treasure hunt for Peppa and George.

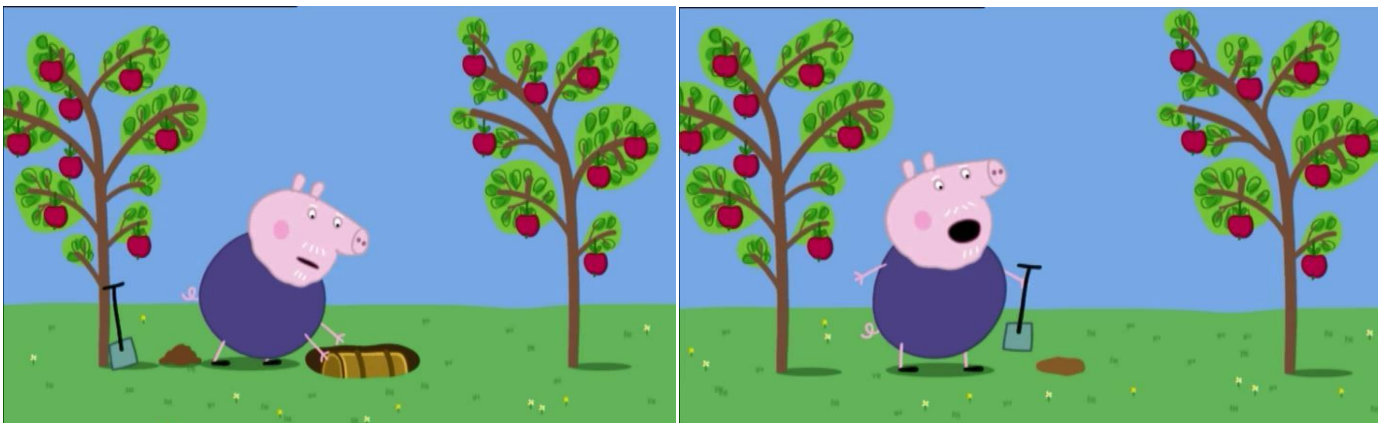

Narrator: Granny Pig is drawing the treasure map. Grandpa Pig is burying the treasure in a secret place in the garden.

Granny: Grandpa Pig! Have you finished?! Peppa and George will be here soon!

Grandpa: No need to panic, Granny Pig!

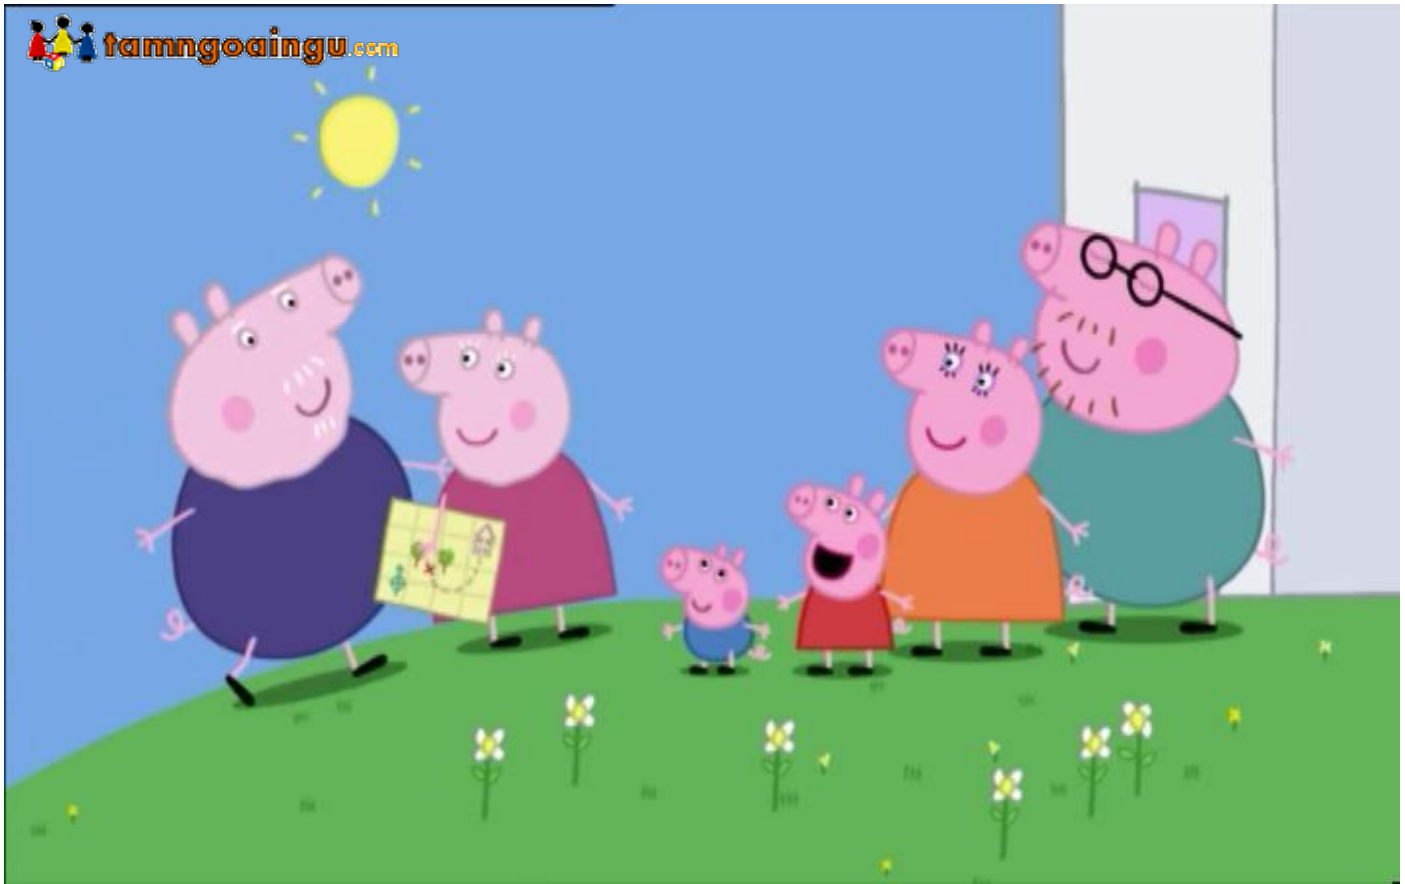

Narrator: Peppa and her family are here!

Granny: Quick, Grandpa Pig! They're here!

Grandpa: Almost done!

Narrator: Grandpa Pig just finished in time!

Peppa: Granny Pig! We're here!

George: Ganggy Ig!

Granny: Hello, my Little ones!

Peppa: Grandpa Pig!

George: Baba Ig!

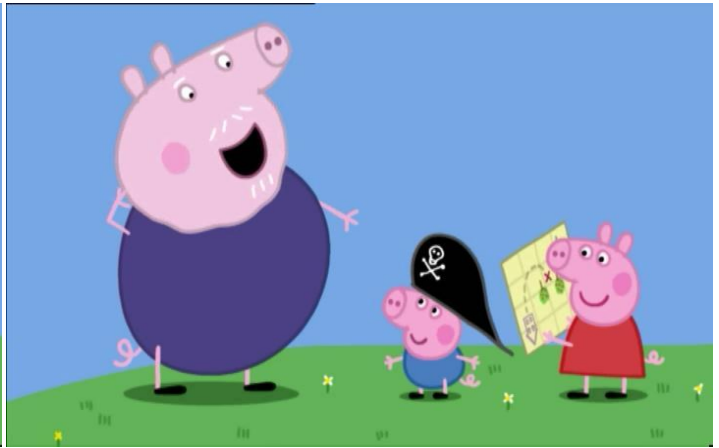

Grandpa: Ahoy there, me hearties!

Granny: Peppa, George, we've made you a treasure hunt!

Grandpa: Somewhere in the garden is buried treasure!

Peppa: Wow! Treasure! Where is it?

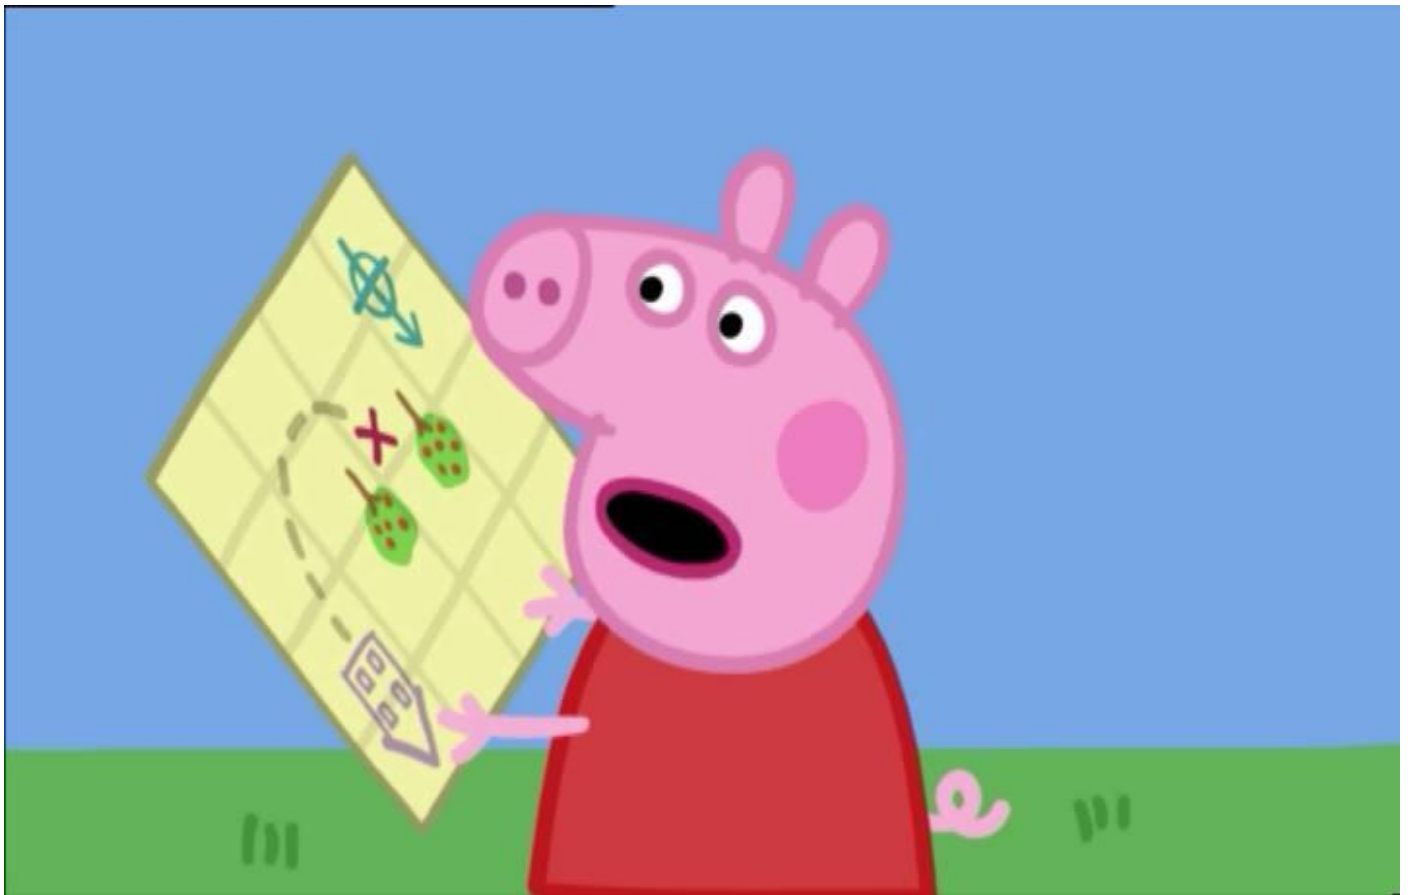

Grandpa: You have to look for it.

Granny: Here's a treasure map for Peppa.

Grandpa: And George can wear my pirate hat.

Ahoy there, Captain George!

Peppa: The map is a bit difficult.

Daddy, can you help?

Daddy: Of course, Peppa. I'm very good with maps.

Er. It is a bit difficult.

Granny: Daddy Pig, you're holding the map upside down!

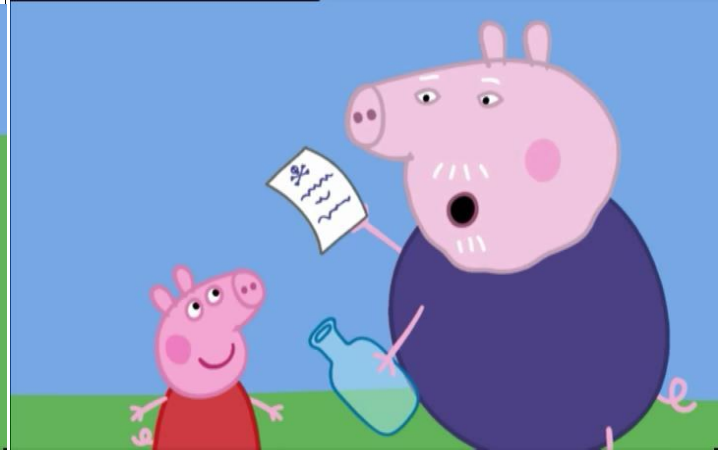

Daddy: Yes, I thought as much.

Peppa: It's easy! The Red Cross shows where the treasure is!

Daddy: But where in the garden are those two apple trees?

Peppa: Hmmm... I don't know.

Granny: Would you like a clue?

Peppa: Yes, please!

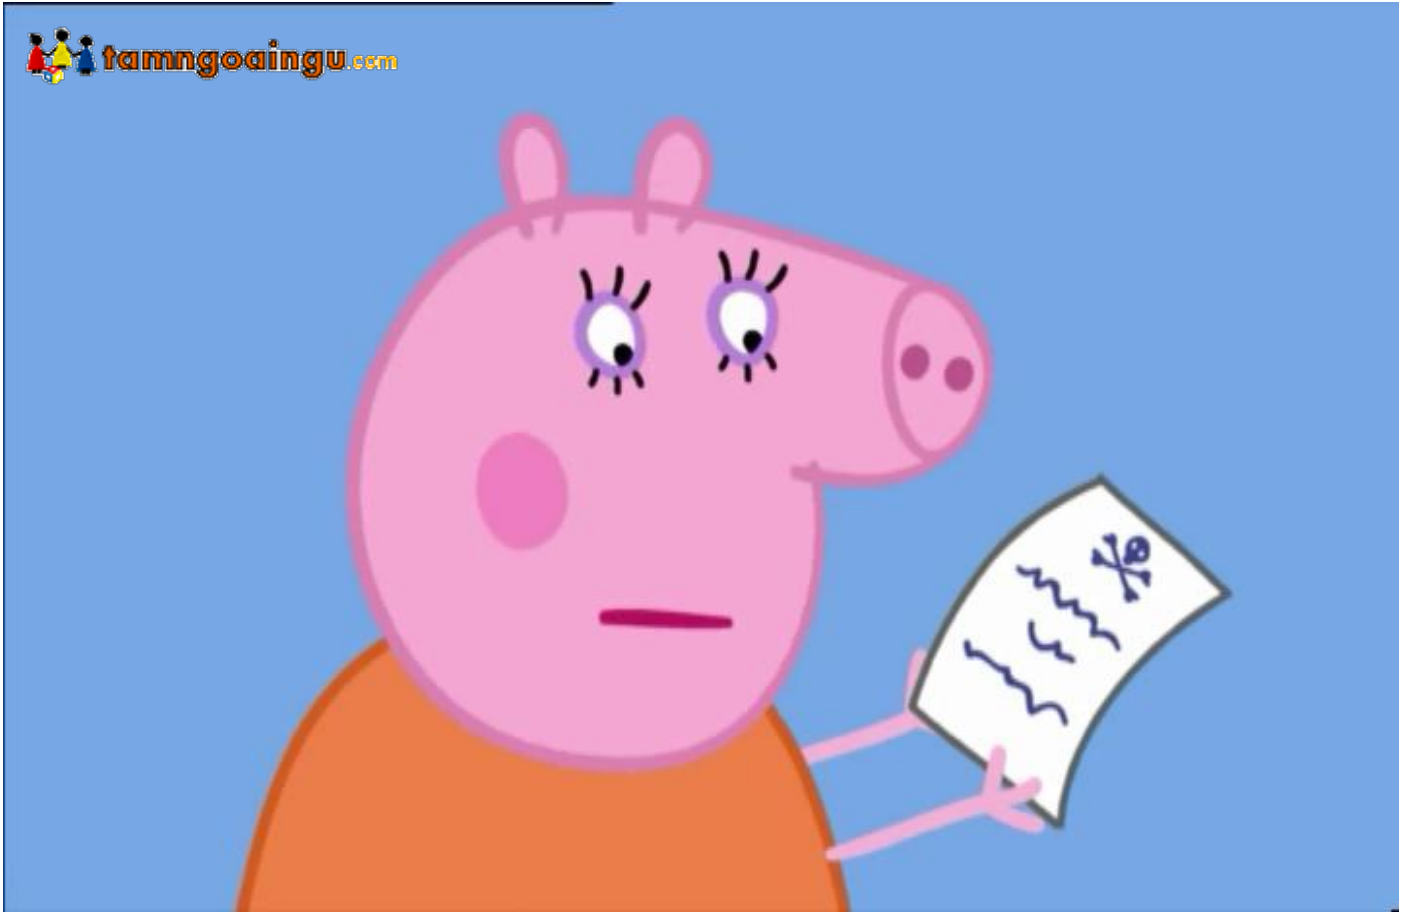

Granny: The first clue is in a bottle. But where is the bottle?

Peppa: I can see it!

Narrator: Peppa has found the first clue. A message in a bottle.

Peppa: Look, everyone! Here's the bottle!

Grandpa: Well done, Peppa! Let's see what the message says. Oh it's a message from a pirate!

Peppa: Mummy? Can you read the pirate's message?

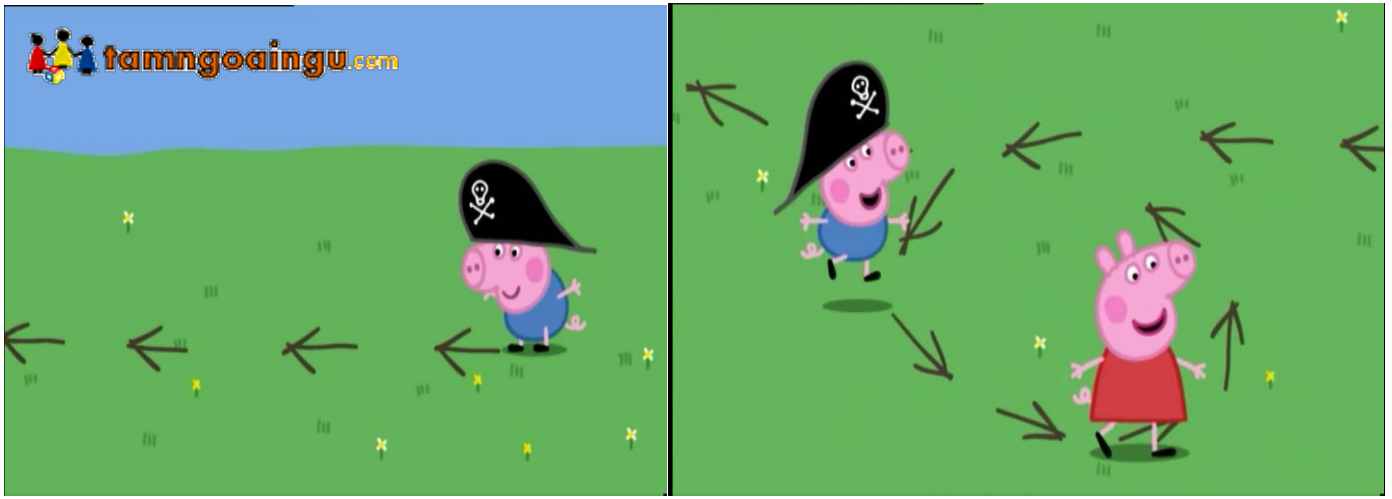

Mummy: Hmm... This pirate has very bad handwriting.

Grandpa: The pirate's handwriting is excellent.

Mummy: No, I can't make it out at all.

Grandpa: The pirate has clearly written, "Follow the arrows!"

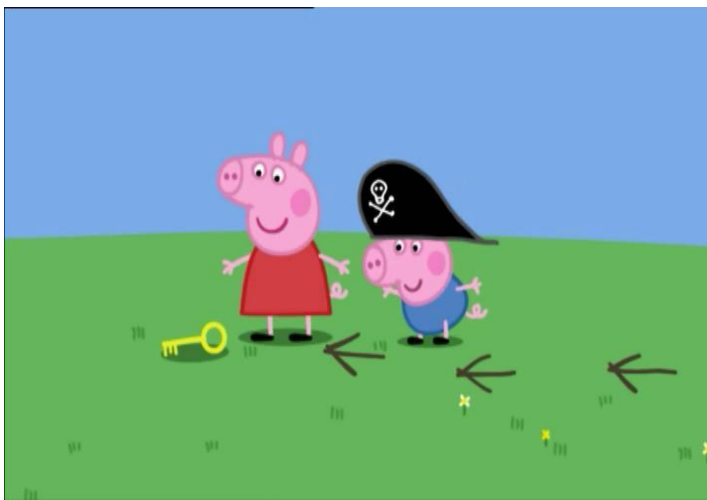

Peppa: Follow the arrows?

Narrator: George has found the second clue!
Sticks in the shape of an arrow!

Peppa: Look! They point this way!

Narrator: Peppa and George are following the arrows.

Peppa: Look, George! A key!

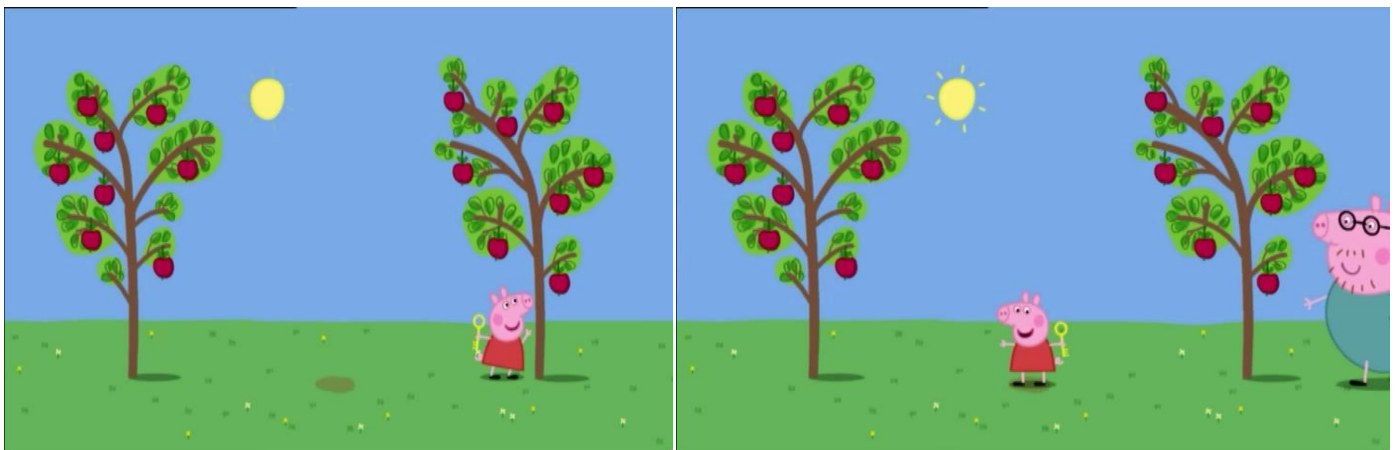

Narrator: Peppa has found the next clue. A key!

Granny: Well done, Peppa! Now you just have to find the treasure chest that it unlocks.

Peppa: But there aren't any more clues.

Granny: Maybe you should take another look at the map... Look, Peppa, the map has two apple trees on it.

Peppa: Here's an apple tree! And here's an apple tree!
So the treasure must be here!

Daddy: Let's take a look! Oh, dear. There doesn't seem to be anything here...

Hang on! There is something here!

Peppa: Wow! Treasure!

All: Hurray!

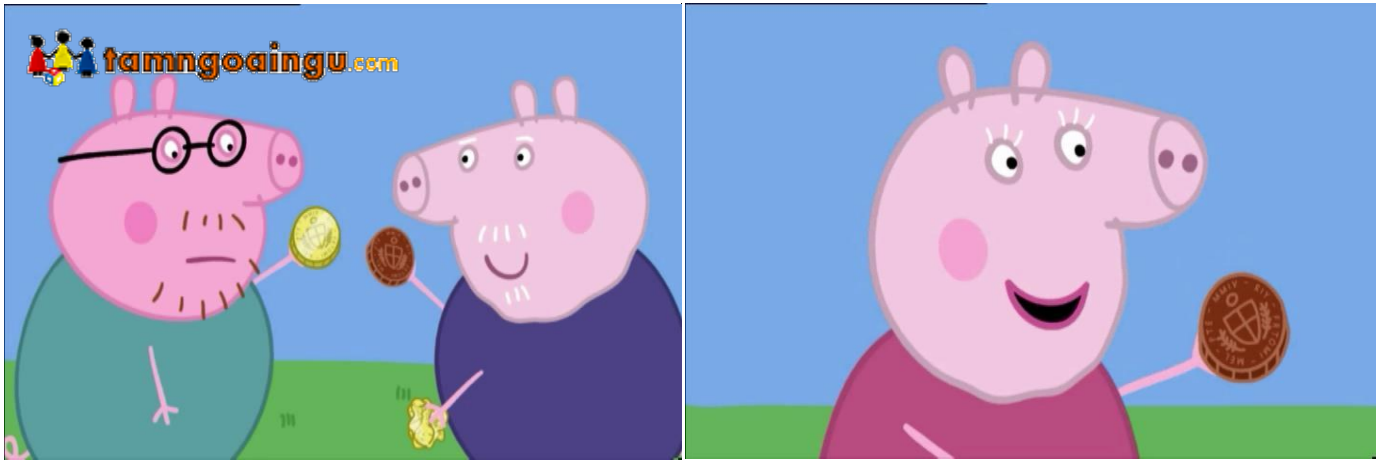

Grandpa: Well done! Well done!

Peppa: I've got the key to open it!

Daddy: Wow! I can't believe it!

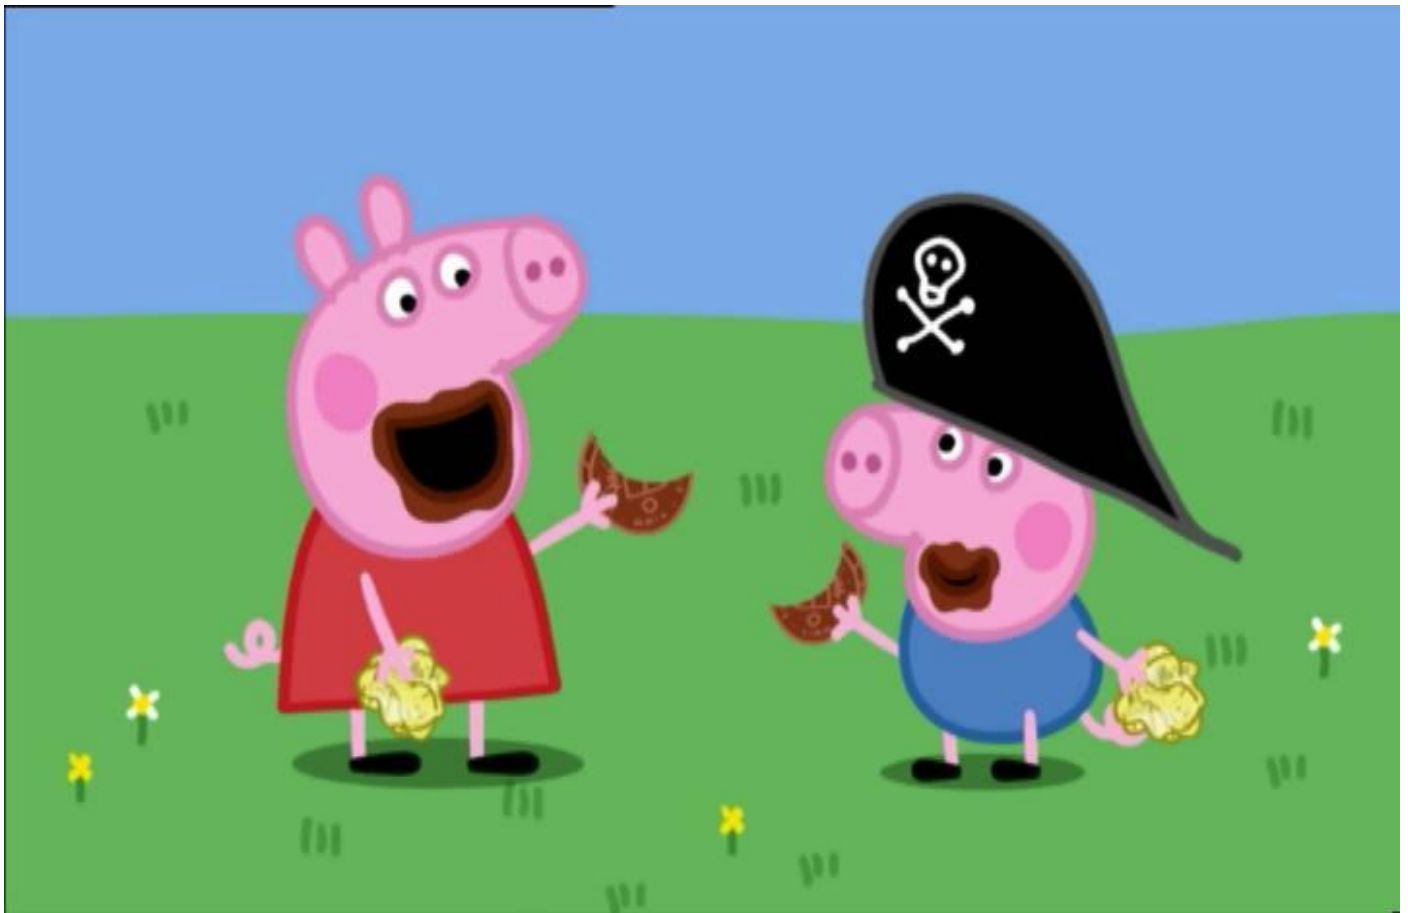

Gold coins! They must be worth a fortune!

Grandpa: It's better than that! They are not gold coins, they are chocolate coins!

Granny: And there's a chocolate coin for everybody.

All: Hurray!

Narrator: Peppa and George love chocolate coins. Everyone loves chocolate coins.

Peppa: Granny, Grandpa, this is the best treasure hunt ever!
