Theme Test 5 (Pets)

C. Read and answer.

A man drove his horse and wagon on the same route every day. He left for work very early each morning. He loaded his wagon at a warehouse. Then he drove around the city delivering food to various places. Unfortunately, when he finished every day, it was close to midnight. He was very tired.

One day, the driver pretended to fall asleep along the route. He wanted to trick the horse to see what it would do. Somehow, the horse followed the right route and stopped at every place on the driver's list.

After that, the driver took a long nap along the route each day. He was never tired again!
