Listen and read. Underline the food that Sarah, Paul and Jake like.

It’s Saturday morning. Sally invites her friends for lunch today. What does each child like?

Sally: Dad, my friends Sarah, Paul and Jake are coming for lunch today and there isn’t any food in the house!

Dad: Oh, yes, you are right! Let’s do the shopping list and then we can go to the supermarket.

Sally: But it’s so difficult because they all like different things!

Dad: OK. What do they like?

Sally: Well, Sarah loves cheese. But she doesn’t like bread! So we can’t even give her sandwiches.

Dad: OK. What about Paul?

Sally: Well, Paul loves fruit and vegetables.

Dad: That’s great because we can give him a lot of healthy food!

Sally: Yes … and he doesn’t like sweet things like ice cream.

Dad: OK. What about Jake?

Sally: Oh, Jake is really difficult! He loves crisps and cake! But he doesn’t like fruit or vegetables. Can you think of any recipe?

Dad: Phew! Making food for your friends isn’t easy!
