

What lives in a river habitat?

1 Read about river habitats. Then match the sentences with the words.

Many plants and animals live in a river habitat. A habitat gives animals food and shelter. Animals are safe when they've got shelter. River plants give food to insects and animals in the water. You can see ducks and frogs in river habitats in different countries. Crocodiles and alligators live in river habitats in hot countries.

- | | |
|--|-----------------------------|
| 1 It's where many plants and animals live. | a food |
| 2 When animals have got this, they are safe. | b crocodiles and alligators |
| 3 This is what river plants give insects and animals. | c a river habitat |
| 4 You can see these animals in rivers in many different countries. | d shelter |
| 5 These animals live in river habitats in hot countries. | e ducks and frogs |

2 What can you see in a river habitat? Write the words in the table.

duck plant frog tree water crocodile

River animals	Not river animals
duck	