Helping Mom

by Terry Miller Shannon illustrated by Susan Reagan

Mom says, "You can go to work with me today."
I love to help Mom at work!

Mom is a vet.
She helps animals that are sick or hurt.

Some animals are pets,
and some are wild animals.
I help take care of them.
I help walk the dogs.

I give food and water to the animals.
I clean their cages and beds.

I help lost pets find their owners.
This makes everyone happy.

Sometimes wild animals get sick or hurt.

Mom makes them better.

We take them back home.

This is a good place for animals to get well.
It is a good place for me too!

Literacy Activities

Animals Need Us

Talk with a partner about the characters in the book. Why is it important to take care of animals where you live?

I Help Animals

Draw a picture of yourself taking care of an animal. What are you doing? Write about it.
