Language point

Study the two dialogues below.

- T: Mario, is this your mobile?
- M: Yes, that's my mobile. Thanks.

- T: And this notebook. Elena, is it yours?
- E: Yes, it's mine. Thanks.

We use possessive adjectives and possessive pronouns to show that something belongs to someone.

4. This is Antonio's wallet. Look, his cards are inside.

Read the sentences out loud using the correct possessive forms.

5

Writing

Two students, Katia and Lucas, have lost some things in the classroom. Read what the students say and decide which things belong to Katia and which things belong to Lucas. Write K or L next to the words in the column on the left, as in the example.

Lucas says:

- I like to look good.
- I am waiting for an important call.
- I can't see well.
- I need to show my name and date of birth.

Katia says:

- I have lots of credit cards.
- I am a good student.
- I love music.
- I have a car.
- I need to show my name and date of birth.

Then write two sentences about each thing, using possessive adjectives and possessive pronouns, as in the example.

	K or L	sentence 1 - possessive adjective	sentence 2 - possessive pronoun glasses
hairbrush	L	It's his hairbrush.	It's his.
headphones
ID card
keys
