

ALSO/TOO/AS WELL

EXERCISE 1.

Underline the choice that best completes the sentence.

e.g. I like Pino Daniele's music and I like Vasco Rossi's as well.

1. We need to buy flour, eggs, oranges, vanilla, and walnuts as well / also.
2. When filling out the form, write your address, date of birth,
and fiscal code also / too.
3. “You know, I’m in the mood for a pizza tonight.” “Me as well / too.”

4. Annamaria is beautiful and she's also / too talented.
5. Don't forget to invite Rosie to the party also / too.
6. You should study grammar and pronunciation as well / also.
7. I'd like you to wash the dishes after dinner; also / too, please take the trash out.
8. Learning English can be fun and useful as well / also.
9. If you're going to the Irish pub tonight, can I come along too / also?

EXERCISE 2.

Complete the following paragraph with too, also, or as well.

What a busy day I had today! Immediately after breakfast I left the house to do errands around town. My husband, who _____ had the morning free, came _____. First we had to go to the bank. I decided to open a new bank account and my husband did, _____. After that, we went to the Town Hall. We had to apply for residence in Monza and we _____ had to fill out a form for paying taxes on trash removal. We _____ went to the Courthouse of Monza. Actually there are two, so we went to the first one and the second one _____. And oh, I almost forgot, we went to the police station _____! You can imagine that by lunchtime, after all that walking, I was very hungry and ate a big plate of spaghetti, a plate of salad, and a glass of fresh orange juice _____.