

Find someone who...

European Day of Languages – 26 September

...has a language A Level

...can count up to 20 in another language

...speaks another
language at home

...can say their name in
another language

...has lived in another country

...has family members
in a different country

...can speak another
language fluently

...got an A* (grade 9) in an MFL GCSE

...is currently learning
a foreign language

...travelled abroad last summer

...gets nervous when speaking another
language

...learnt another
language abroad

(Hint: lots of possibilities here!)

The European Day of Languages celebrates linguistic diversity in Europe and promotes the importance of language learning.