

Walk around the room and answer the questions!

BREAKING the RULES

1. The reading is about how breaking rules can make

- a) Photos look more interesting B) Photography difficult
- b) c) Photos look poor

2. Most photographers...

- A) Focus on the main subject B) Pay more attention to secondary details
- C) Try to create a layered effect

3. The active space rule says you should leave empty space for people to...

- A) Move into B) Move away from C) Create an illusion

4. To create an element of surprise you should...

- A) Take pictures outdoors B) Keep lines straight C) Create an unusual angle.

5. Summarise the 4 photography tips that are in the reading (no more than 10 words for each!)...

a) _____

b) _____

c) _____

d) _____

6. Sort! Write R for the rules photographers follow and B for rules that they've broken.

..... Turn the camera and point it upwards light behind you

..... Shoot with the

..... Leave space for people to move into straight

..... Keep Lines

..... Point your camera directly into the light

..... Focus on the main subject of the photo.