

A House For Hermit Crab

Pause at the indicated time stamps and discuss the book.

0:30

Why does Hermit feel too big for his house?
Have you ever felt too big for something?

1:17

Where is somewhere that feels just right for you?
What makes it feel just right?

3:25

Who helps clean where you live?
How can you be helpful with the cleaning?

4:08

What are ways you can protect where you live?

6:57

How do you think Hermit feels about giving his shell to another hermit crab? What is something you cared about that you gave to someone? How did you feel when you gave it away?

7:40

What is something you are looking forward to?

After viewing the book:

1. Who decorates your life? How?
2. What characteristics are important in a friend? Do you have those characteristics?
3. Describe a big change that you have had in your life. What do you think the next big change will be? How do you think you might handle that change?
4. Which sea creature do you think is most useful to Hermit Crab? Why?
5. As a family, make a monthly calendar, with one kind thing you can do for someone each month.