

VOLKSWAGEN VAN MEMORIES

TRANSCRIPT

Simone, you said your family had a Volkswagen van. That's right. It was awesome. Wow, that's cool. You know, when I was in high school, I had a Volkswagen van. Yeah, they're pretty cool, aren't they? Oh, man, I loved my Volkswagen van. Why? Well, because I played sports, and so I played baseball, basketball, football, and all of my teammates would get in my van and that would drive us to and from practice or to games and so it was very convenient. I was like the little bus driver for the team. Yeah, well you said bus. Did you call it a van or a bus? Actually in California we call it the Volkswagen bus. Yeah. I think either was okay, or both were okay. Yeah, my family had the camperized van, which had a refrigerator and a table and a bed, and a pop-up top to fit another bed, like a loft. Wow, that's pretty cool. At least four people quite comfortably in a camper van. Pretty cool. Yeah. Actually, mine didn't have the camper. It had a flat area in the back of the van, but not a bed. And it did have a small sink, although I never had water hooked up to my van, so I never used it. I just used it for school. My best friend had a van in high school as well. Yeah? And he was really popular because he could fit a lot of people in. Mm-hmm. So my van was all white. What color was yours? My parents' van was also white. My friend's van was black and white and had a skull on the front. Yeah, so it looked like a pirate van or pirate bus. Not a pirate ship, but a pirate van. It was pretty cool at the time. Yeah. I actually have many nice memories of my van. I wish I still had one today. Yeah, me too. Does your family still have it? No, they don't. Time to move on, I guess, they thought. I think I sold my van because I didn't think it was cool after a while. I had it for 3 years and then I wanted a nice sports car, so I got rid of it. I kind of regret it, but I guess that's just normal. I kind of regret it, but I guess that's just normal. Of course, everybody likes their old cars, don't they?
