

TEACH-THIS.COM

Where does the adverb go?

Rewrite the sentences and put the adverb in the correct place.

1. I'm going to buy a house next year. (probably)

---

2. Ann has started learning Mandarin. (just)

---

3. Tom doesn't like technology. He hasn't got a computer. (even)

---

4. I watch television, though I surf the internet. (hardly ever, frequently)

---

5. My brother smiles. He's so serious and solemn. (hardly ever, always)

---

6. I haven't finished doing my project. I've got five more pages to write. (yet, still)

---

7. He has had six cars and they have been BMWs, (all)

---

8. Darren is a good football player and he plays tennis. (also)

---

9. I've got two sisters and they're married, (both)

---

10. The presentation wasn't very good. I could hear the presenter. (hardly)

---

11. I agree with you. The government is more controlling. (completely, definitely)

---

12. I go to the gym these days. There's enough time, (rarely, never)

---